Компания заинтересована провести переговоры с телевизионными каналами и продюсерами из России, заинтересованными в совместном производстве телевизионных сериалов по романам Агаты Кристи. Agatha Christie is the best-selling author of all time, only outsold by The Bible and Shakespeare. Agatha Christie Ltd own all global rights to her extraordinary stories and characters which it actively exploits across TV and film, publishing, stage and games. Her works are published locally by Eksmo, one of the largest publishing houses in Russia, and have consistently enjoyed a very strong readership in the region. Agatha Christie adaptations have also been hugely popular in Russia as recently evidenced by the box office performance of Fox's A-list blockbuster Murder on the Orient Express (2017) which grossed over $16m in the territory (making it the fifth largest market for the film worldwide). Agatha Christie's plays too have had successful local runs at prestigious venues such as The Moscow Art Theatre. As well as high profile English language TV, most recently The ABC Murders with John Malkovich as Poirot (BBC/Amazon Studios 2018), Agatha Christie's works have been successfully adapted into local language productions around the world. In France, Les PetitsMeurtres'Agatha Christie has run for 11 seasons, becoming the #2 show for France 2. There have also been local language adaptations for major television networks in Japan and Korea. ACL is now keen to speak to leading Russian broadcasters and production partners to discuss developing a high-end Russian language television drama based on Agatha Christie's works for the local market. Our ambition is to join with the very best talent (both behind and in front of camera) to create a high profile, returning series that fits with our contemporary vision for the brand and truly resonates with the local audience.
